2. Ranking. The Corporation's Series A Preferred Stock shall rank, upon Liquidation, senior and prior to the Corporation's Common Stock and any other class or series of stock of the Corporation.

3. Dividends. The holders of record of Series A Preferred Stock (collectively, the "Series A Preferred Stockholders") shall be entitled to receive, out of funds legally available therefor, such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the "Board"), but only when, as, and if declared by the Board; provided that, so long as any Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, the Corporation shall not declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution (whether in cash, shares of capital stock of the Corporation or other property) on the Common Stock or any other class or series of stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock, unless prior thereto or simultaneously therewith an equal dividend shall be paid on the Series A Preferred Stock (on an as-converted to Common Stock basis).

4. Liquidation Preferences. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the affairs of the Corporation (collectively, a "Liquidation"), whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to its stockholders, whether from capital, surplus or earnings, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Preferred Distribution. Before any payment of cash or distribution of other property shall be made to the holders of record of the Common Stock (the "Common Stockholders") or the holders of any other class or series of stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock, each Series A Preferred Stockholder shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the greater of (i) the original issuance price of the Series A Preferred Stock of $0.714285 (the "Original Series A Issuance Price") per share of Series A Preferred Stock (as appropriately adjusted for any stock dividends, splits, combinations, divisions, recapitalizations or similar transactions (collectively, "Recapitalizations") affecting the Series A Preferred Stock after the date of original issuance of the first share of the Series A Preferred Stock (the "Original Series A Issuance Date")), and (ii) the amount such Series A Preferred Stockholder would receive if all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred stock were converted into Common Stock immediately prior to the Liquidation (the "Series A Liquidation Preference"). If, upon any Liquidation, the assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to its stockholders are insufficient to permit the payment to the Series A Preferred Stockholders of the full Series A Liquidation Preference, then the entire assets and funds legally available for distribution to its stockholders shall be distributed ratably among the Series A Preferred Stockholders in proportion to the full preferential amount each such holder is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section A.4(a).

(b) Distribution of Remaining Assets. Following the payment to the Series A Preferred Stockholders of the Series A Liquidation Preference, any remaining assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to its stockholders shall be distributed among the Common Stockholders pro rata based on the total number of shares of Common Stock held by each such holder on an as-converted to Common Stock basis.

5. Conversion Rights.

(a) Voluntary Conversion. Subject to and in compliance with this Section A.5, any shares of Series A Preferred Stock may, at the option of the holder thereof, be converted at any time or from time to time, into fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock. The number of shares of Common Stock to which a Series A Preferred Stockholder shall be entitled upon conversion shall be the product obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock being converted by the Series A Conversion Rate (as defined in Section A.5(c) hereof) in effect at the time of conversion.

(b) Automatic Conversion.

(i) Events Giving Rise to Automatic Conversion. Each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock shall be converted automatically, without any further action by the holders of such shares and whether or not the certificates representing such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or its transfer agent, into that number of shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock are convertible at the then effective Series A Conversion Rate upon the occurrence of the earlier to occur of the following:

(A) The consummation of the Corporation's first firm commitment underwritten public offering pursuant to a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), covering the offer and sale by the Corporation of Common Stock at a public offering price per share that is not less than four times the Original Series A Issuance Price (as appropriately adjusted for any Recapitalizations affecting the Series A Preferred Stock after the Original Series A Issuance Date) and with a total in gross offering proceeds of not less than $35,000,000 (prior to deducting underwriter discounts and commissions and expenses of the offering) (a "Qualified Public Offering"); and

(B) The approval of such conversion by the written consent or vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

(c) Conversion Rate. The Series A Conversion Rate in effect at any time shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the Original Series A Issuance Price by the Series A Conversion Price (as defined in Section A.5(d) hereof and as adjusted pursuant to Section A.5(f) hereof) (the "Series A Conversion Rate").

(d) Conversion Price. Subject to adjustment in accordance with Section A.5(f) hereof, the "Series A Conversion Price" shall initially be an amount equal to the Original Series A Issuance Price.

(e) Mechanics of Conversion.

(i) Voluntary Conversion. In order to effect a voluntary conversion of Series A Preferred Stock, the holder thereof shall provide written notice to the Corporation that it elects to convert the same into Common Stock, and shall deliver such notice to the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for such shares. Such voluntary conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of surrender of the certificate(s) representing the shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted.

(ii) Automatic Conversion.

(A) In the case of an automatic conversion in connection with a Qualified Public Offering, the conversion may, at the option of any holder tendering shares of Series A Preferred Stock for conversion, be conditioned upon the closing with the underwriter(s) of the sale of securities pursuant to such Qualified Public Offering, in which case the person or persons entitled to receive the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall not be deemed to have converted such Preferred Stock until immediately prior to the closing of such Qualified Public Offering.

(B) In the case of an automatic conversion pursuant to Section A.5(b)(i)(B) hereof, the shares of Series A Preferred Stock subject to the automatic conversion shall be converted automatically without any further action by the holders of such shares, and the person or persons entitled to receive the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be deemed to have converted such Series A Preferred Stock on the effective date of such written consent or vote.

(iii) Surrender of Certificates; Deliveries by Corporation.

Before delivery to any person of certificates representing shares of Common Stock issued upon voluntary or automatic conversion of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock, the holder of such Series A Preferred Stock shall surrender the certificate or certificates for such Series A Preferred Stock, duly endorsed or assigned in blank, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for such shares (or shall notify the Corporation or its transfer agent that such certificates have been lost, stolen, or destroyed and execute an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates) and shall provide a written declaration of the name or names in which such holder wishes the certificate or certificates for shares of Common Stock to be issued. If a Series A Preferred Stockholder shall surrender more than one stock certificate for shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted at any one time, the number of such shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock so surrendered for conversion. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after receipt of the certificate or certificates for the Series A Preferred Stock subject to such conversion (or, in the case of a lost certificate, the agreement and indemnification referred to above), issue and deliver at such office to such holder of Series A Preferred Stock, (A) a certificate or certificates for the number of full shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled as aforesaid, (B) in the event of the conversion of only a portion of the shares covered by a certificate representing Series A Preferred Stock, a new stock certificate representing the number of unconverted shares of Series A Preferred Stock, (C) a check payable to the holder for any cash amounts payable as the result of a conversion into fractional shares of Common Stock pursuant to Section A.5(e)(v) hereof, and (D) payment of any declared or accrued but unpaid dividends on the shares of Series A Preferred Stock being converted up to and including the date of conversion, unless such dividends are waived pursuant to Section A.5(b)(iii) hereof, by delivery of a check payable to the holder, or to the extent the funds of the Corporation legally available for the payment of dividends are insufficient to pay the full amount of such dividends in cash, a certificate for shares of Common Stock (at the then current market price of a share of Common Stock determined in the manner described in Section A.5(e)(v) hereof).

(iv) Rights Following Conversion. From and after the effective date of any voluntary or automatic conversion pursuant to this Section A.5, without any further action by any holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock being converted and whether or not such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or its transfer agent: (A) all rights of such holder with respect to any Series A Preferred Stock subject to such conversion, except the right to receive shares of Common Stock and any applicable cash amounts in accordance with this Section A.5, shall cease; (B) the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock as of such date; and (C) the shares of Series A Preferred Stock subject to such conversion shall not thereafter be transferred on the books of the Corporation or be deemed to be outstanding for any purpose whatsoever.

(v) Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The Corporation shall pay a cash adjustment for such fractional interest in an amount equal to the then current market price (as defined below) of a share of Common Stock multiplied by such fractional interest. The then current market price per share of Common Stock at any date shall be deemed to be (A) the highest price per share which the Corporation could obtain from a willing buyer (who is not a current employee or director) for shares of Common Stock sold by the Corporation, from authorized but unissued shares, as determined in good faith by the Board or (B) in the case of an automatic conversion pursuant to a Qualified Public Offering, the per share price of the Qualified Public Offering.

(f) Conversion Price Adjustments. The Series A Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as follows:

(i) Anti-Dilution Adjustment.

(A) In the event the Corporation shall at any time or from time to time after the Original Series A Issuance Date issue any Additional Shares (as defined in Section A.5(f)(v) hereof), otherwise than as provided in Sections A.5(f)(ii), (iii) or (iv) hereof, without consideration or for a consideration per share less than the Series A Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such issuance, then and in such event, the Series A Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to each such issuance shall be reduced, concurrently with such issuance, to a price calculated to the nearest whole cent determined by multiplying the then effective Series A Conversion Price by a fraction (x) the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Shares plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate consideration received by the Corporation for the total number of Additional Shares so issued would purchase at the then effective Series A Conversion Price, and (y) the denominator of which shall be the sum of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Shares plus the number of Additional Shares so issued. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever any Additional Shares are issued without consideration or for a consideration per share less than the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such issuance and shall become effective immediately after the Additional Shares are issued. For purposes of the above calculation, the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issuance shall be calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis, as if all then outstanding Series A Preferred Stock had been fully converted immediately prior to such issuance, but not including any shares of Common Stock issuable with respect to the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock solely as a result of the adjustment to the Conversion Price resulting from the issuance of the Additional Shares causing the adjustment in question. No adjustment of the Conversion Price shall be made under this Section A.5(f)(i)(A) upon the issuance of any Additional Shares which are issued pursuant to the conversion of any convertible securities or the exercise of any warrants, options or other subscription or purchase rights therefor, to the extent any adjustment shall previously have been made with respect thereto pursuant to Section A.5(f)(i)(B) hereof.

(B) In the event the Corporation shall issue any securities, options, warrants or other rights directly or indirectly convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of Common Stock ("Convertible Securities") and the consideration per share for which Additional Shares may at any time thereafter be issuable pursuant to the terms of such Convertible Securities shall be less than the Series A Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to the issuance of such Convertible Securities, then upon such issuance of Convertible Securities, such Series A Conversion Price shall be adjusted as provided in Section A.5(f)(i)(A) hereof on the basis that (x) all of the Additional Shares issuable upon the conversion, exchange or exercise of all such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of issuance of such Convertible Securities and (y) the aggregate consideration for such Additional Shares shall be deemed to be the consideration received by the Corporation for the issuance of such Convertible Securities plus the minimum consideration receivable by the Corporation for the issuance of such Additional Shares pursuant to the terms of such Convertible Securities upon the conversion, exchange or exercise thereof. With respect to the issuance of any Convertible Securities which has resulted in an adjustment to the Series A Conversion Price pursuant to this Section A.5(f)(i), to the extent the right to acquire Additional Shares upon conversion, exchange or exercise of such Convertible Securities expires or is terminated without such conversion, exchange or exercise having been effected, such adjustment to the Series A Conversion Price shall be recomputed as if: (i) in the case of the issuance of Convertible Securities, the only Additional Shares issued were the shares of Common Stock, if any, actually issued upon the exercise, conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities and the consideration received therefor was the consideration actually received by the Corporation for the issue of such exercised Convertible Securities plus the consideration actually received by the Corporation upon such exercise, conversion or exchange, and (ii) in the case of the issuance of options for Convertible Securities, only the Convertible Securities, if any, actually issued upon the exercise thereof were issued at the time of issue of such options, and the consideration received by the Corporation for the Additional Shares deemed to have been then issued was the consideration actually received by the Corporation for the issue of such exercised options, plus the consideration deemed to have been received by the Corporation upon the issue of the Convertible Securities with respect to which such options were actually exercised.

(ii) Stock Dividend, Split or Subdivision of Shares. If, at any time after the Original Series A Issuance Date, the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding, is increased or deemed increased by a stock dividend payable in shares of Common Stock or by a subdivision or split-up of shares of Common Stock (other than a change in par value, from par value to no par value or from no par value to par value), then, following the effective date fixed for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such stock dividend, subdivision or split-up, the Series A Conversion Price shall be appropriately decreased (but in no event shall the Series A Conversion Price be decreased below the par value of the Common Stock) so that the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be increased in proportion to such increase in outstanding shares (on a fully diluted basis).

(iii) Combination of Shares. If, at any time after the Original Series A Issuance Date, the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding is decreased by a combination of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (other than a change in par value, from par value to no par value or from no par value to par value), then, following the record date fixed for such combination (or the date of such combination, if no record date is fixed), the Series A Conversion Price shall be appropriately increased so that the number of shares of Common Stock issuable on conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be decreased in proportion to such decrease in outstanding shares (on a fully diluted basis).

(iv) Recapitalizations, Reorganization, etc. If, at any time after the Original Series A Issuance Date, there shall be any recapitalization, capital reorganization, or reclassification involving the Common Stock (other than a change in par value or from par value to no par value or from no par value to par value or as a result of a stock dividend, subdivision, split-up, combination of shares or other event otherwise provided for in this Section A.5), provision shall be made (in form and substance satisfactory to the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares Series A Preferred Stock) so that the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall thereafter be entitled to receive, upon conversion of their shares of Series A Preferred Stock, such shares or other securities or property of the Corporation or otherwise, to which a holder of Common Stock deliverable upon conversion would have been entitled to receive in such recapitalization, capital reorganization, or reclassification. In any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section A.5 with respect to the rights of the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock after the recapitalization, capital reorganization, or reclassification to the end that the provisions of this Section A.5 applicable after that event (including adjustment of the Series A Conversion Price then in effect and the number of shares purchasable upon conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock) shall be as nearly equivalent to those applicable before the event as may be practicable.

(v) Additional Shares. "Additional Shares" shall mean any shares of Common Stock or other securities directly or indirectly convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of Common Stock, other than:

(A) Common Stock issued or issuable upon conversion of any shares of Series A Preferred Stock;

(B) Shares of the Corporation's capital stock issued or issuable upon exercise, exchange or conversion of any warrants or other securities outstanding as of the date of the filing of this Certificate of Incorporation;

(C) Common Stock issued to directors, officers, employees, consultants and advisors who provide or have provided bona fide services to the Corporation, pursuant to any options to purchase or rights to subscribe for such Common Stock outstanding as of the date of the filing of this Certificate of Incorporation or granted after such date pursuant to an option or rights plan, agreement or arrangement of the Corporation;

(D) Common Stock issued in transactions described in Section A.5(f)(ii), (iii) or (iv) hereof;

(E) Shares of Common Stock issued in connection with a Qualified Public Offering;

(F) Securities issued or issuable by the Corporation to persons or entities with which the Corporation has a business relationship, including, without limitation, corporate partner transactions, leasing arrangements and bank financings; provided, however, that such securities are issued for a primary purpose other than equity financing; and

(G) Securities issued or issuable by the Corporation in connection with: (i) the acquisition of another corporation, partnership, company, joint venture, trust or other entity by the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation by means of a merger, consolidation, reorganization, stock acquisition, purchase of assets or other transaction or series of related transactions whereby the Corporation, or its stockholders of record immediately prior to the effectiveness of such transaction, directly or indirectly, own at least a majority of the voting power or assets of such other entity or the resulting or surviving corporation immediately after such transaction; (ii) the acquisition by the Corporation of intellectual property rights, including, without limitation, pursuant to intellectual property licenses or technology transfer or development arrangements; or (iii) the creation of a corporate or joint venture or any other strategic alliance with any other corporation or entity, including, without limitation, manufacturing, marketing or distribution arrangements.

(vi) Rounding. All calculations under this Section A.5(f) shall be made to the nearest cent ($0.01) or to the nearest share, as the case may be.

(vii) Timing of Adjustments. In any case in which the provisions of this Section A.5(f) shall require that an adjustment shall become effective immediately after a record date for an event, the Corporation may defer until the occurrence of that event (A) issuing to the holder of any share of Series A Preferred Stock converted after such record date and before the occurrence of such event the additional shares of capital stock issuable upon such conversion by reason of the adjustment required by such event over and above the shares of capital stock issuable upon such conversion before giving effect to such adjustment and (B) paying to such holder any amount in cash in lieu of a fractional share of capital stock pursuant to Section A.5(e)(v) hereof; provided, however, that the Corporation shall deliver to such holder a due bill or other appropriate instrument evidencing such holder's right to receive such additional shares, in such case, upon the occurrence of the event requiring such adjustment.

(i) In the event the Corporation shall propose to take any action of the types described in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of Section A.5(f) hereof, the Corporation shall give notice to each Series A Preferred Stockholder, by first-class, certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, which shall specify the record date, if any, with respect to any such action and the date on which such action is to take place. The notice shall also set forth such facts as are reasonably necessary to indicate the effect of such action (to the extent such effect may be known at the date of such notice) on the Series A Conversion Price and the number, kind or class of shares or other securities or property which shall be deliverable or purchasable upon the occurrence of such action or deliverable upon conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock. In the case of any action which would require the fixing of a record date, such notice shall be given at least ten (10) days prior to the date so fixed, and in case of all other action, such notice shall be given at least fifteen (15) days prior to the taking of such proposed action. Failure to give such notice, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of any such action.

(ii) Whenever the Series A Conversion Price shall be adjusted as provided in Section A.5(f) hereof, the Corporation shall file, at its principal office, at the office of the transfer agent for the Series A Preferred Stock, if any, or at such other place as may be designated by the Corporation, a statement showing in detail the facts requiring such adjustment and the Series A Conversion Price that shall be in effect after such adjustment. The Corporation shall also cause a copy of such statement to be sent in the manner set forth in Section A.5(g)(i) hereof, to each Series A Preferred Stockholder at such holder's address appearing on the Corporation's records. Where appropriate, such copy may be given in advance and may be included as part of a notice required to be mailed under the provisions of Section A.5(g)(i) hereof.

(h) Reservation of Common Stock. The Corporation shall at all times have authorized and reserve, free from preemptive rights, out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock, a sufficient number of shares of Common Stock to provide for the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

(i) Status of Common Stock. All shares of Common Stock which may be issued in connection with the conversion provisions set forth herein shall, upon issuance by the Corporation, be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, free from preemptive rights and free from all taxes, liens or charges with respect thereto.

The Series A Preferred Stockholders shall be entitled to vote, together with the Common Stockholders and any other class or series of stock then entitled to vote, as one class on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, in the same manner and with the same effect as the Common Stockholders, which voting rights shall not be cumulative. In any such vote, each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote per share for each share of Common Stock (including fractional shares) into which each
